

IPG Project Performance Indicators 2022/23

Project Title	Amount	IPG Priority	Performance Objective	Performance indicator	Target outcomes
Signature area Research	500,000	Innovation and Commercialization	Develop 9 signature areas of research	To have 9 signature area leads in place and strategic plans for each signature area	Submission of signature area strategic plans.
Status - Signature area leads have been appointed in 8 of the 9 signature areas. Significant progress has been made on each areas signature area. For more information see our signature area website https://research.usask.ca/about/signature-areas-of-research.php
Research Support Facilitators	300,000	Innovation and Commercialization	Increase the efficiency of the support given to research applications	An increase in the success of research applications	Increase in research grants awarded
Status - Research facilitators to support faculty in their grant applications were hired in our Research Acceleration and Strategic Initiatives office to support the growth of research. The measurement of this outcome continues to be monitored however early indicators are positive with an increase in overall research at the University of Saskatchewan
Indigenous Research	250,489	Equity, diversity and faculty renewal	Support Community engagement for indigenous Research	Building long-term relationships that support indigenous research	Creation of formal research relationships
Status - The office of the VP of research continues to work with the community to build relationships that will enhance and grow indigenous research. The University of Saskatchewan has successfully signed an MOU with the Metis Nation of Saskatchewan
Ethics renewal Platform	250,000	Information Resources	To find an updated and efficient database management system to manage research ethics compliance work	Building long-term relationships that support Indigenous research	The desired outcome is to find the most effective research ethics software platform
Status - The project is ongoing through ongoing support from the institution.					