

IPG Project Performance Indicators 2024/25

Project Title	Amount	IPG Priority	Performance Objective	Performance indicator	Target outcomes
Saskatchewan Structural Science Center (SSSC) Support	505,000	Facility renewal, including deferred maintenance	To support the maintenance and upkeep of equipment at the SCCCC	Equipment is maintained at a high level which will allow the center to increase its users to reduce the level of institutional support	Equipment continues to be maintained to support a high level of research
Status - Project is ongoing for 3 years.
OPUS	834,106	Innovation and Commercialization	Designed as a pre-accelerator, Opus provides aspiring entrepreneurs from USask with the tools needed to build successful ventures on campus.	The expectation is to accelerate the growth of commercialization of the research of our faculty, staff, students and alumni	The success of the program by the number of applicants that enter and complete the program and the level of commercialization activity
Status - The project is ongoing and continues to grow in applicants indicating early success. The program has also received matching funding from Innovation Saskatchewan, to support its ongoing operations and growth.					