

Research Security Performance Indicators 2022/23

Project Title	Amount	Priority	Performance Objective	Performance Indicator	Target outcomes
Research Storage Protection	501,151	Research Security	Increase secure storage capacity by increasing capacity in our Datastore system	Increased storage to protect and backup research data	Successfully increase storage capacity in DataStore
Status - The institution has increased our Data store capacity to secure and protect research data by 1500 terabytes
XDR, LogRhythm, and Firewall	60,000	Research Security	Our goal with this security product is to ensure our visibility into endpoint operations by placing agent software on them to monitor activity.	XDR: Unwanted applications are alerted on and removed promptly	CLS will be able to ensure that activities occurring on the network conform to expected activity and policies that have been agreed to and signed off on by our management team
Status - Project completed successfully and the support for the software for the project will continue					