Research Security Performance Indicators 2024/25

Project Title	Amount	Priority	Performance Objective	Performance indicator	Target outcomes
Research Security specialists	538,752	Research Security	Hire 4 full time staff to support the ongoing needs of research security including an IT specialist	A strategic research security plan to manage research data and monitor collaborations with other researchers outside of our institution to flag and take the applicable action needed to ensure the safety of our research data.	Have an integrated effective research Data management strategy
Status - The institution has hired 4 full time staff to support our research data management strategy. Work is ongoing to fully implement the strategy.
XDR, LogRhythm, and Firewall	34,000	Research Security	Our goal with this security product is to ensure our visibility into endpoint operations by placing agent software on them to monitor activity.	XDR: Unwanted applications are alerted on and removed promptly	CLS will be able to ensure that activities occurring on the network conform to expected activity and policies that have been agreed to and signed off on by our management team
Status - Project completed successfully and the support for the software for the project will continue					