

Research Services and Ethics Office Publications Fund

- Purpose: To support scholarly and creative works publishing by University of Saskatchewan faculty.
- Value: A faculty member can submit one request in either of the following categories:
- up to $1,500 to assist in Publishing costs;
 - up to $1,500 for a formal Book Publication Subvention; or
 - up to $1,500 for Other Scholarly and Artistic Works as defined in the guidelines.
- Deadline: June 1 and December 1 (UPDATE: December 1, 2018 competition is CANCELLED)
If this date lands on a weekend or holiday, the deadline will be the next working day.
- If there are insufficient funds to award all eligible requests, funding may be prorated across eligible applications for the current competition. Subsequent competitions may be cancelled for that fiscal year.
- Timeframe: Funds must be expended within the fiscal year in which they are awarded.
Funds will be JV'd upon receipt of publisher's invoice to the awardee.
- Eligibility: Tenure-track or tenured University of Saskatchewan faculty members (excluding adjunct and emeritus) are eligible to apply. Faculty in term positions are eligible but at a lower priority.
- Only one application per applicant per fiscal year will be accepted.
Only one scholarly and creative work can be requested for support per fiscal year.
- Higher priority will be given to:
- new faculty, within the first five years of their appointment;
 - articles published in open access publishing venues, to align with the University of Saskatchewan's commitment to improving access to publicly funded research;
 - applicants who have not previously received support.
- Procedure to Apply: Application form can be downloaded on the VP Research webpage under Internal Funding Programs.
- Complete application forms are to be submitted through UnivRS. Paper applications will not be accepted.
- Notifications of decision will be sent by email.

Eligible
Expenditures:

Publication costs associated with the direct act of publishing are eligible. All requests must be accompanied by a copy of the publisher invoice outlining costs associated with the following:

- Journal Article open access fees
- Book Publication Subventions for applications that include an explanation of planned use of funds and a letter from the publisher indicating the detailed budget for the book.
- Other Scholarly and Creative Works including: art catalogues and collections for which the applicant is the artist or senior editor; non-print media such as the production of a film/video or the production of a master recording; digital/electronic media such as the digitalization of collections defined such that all of the content of the entire collection is freely available online; literary works such as a poem, play, or screen play; and publication of a composition of music.

Ineligible
Expenditures:

- Preparation costs;
- Journal reprint costs;
- Page fees;
- Colour printing or reproduction costs;
- Non-refereed publications such as in-house publications, newsletters, and other personally self-published works;
- Professional development or the creation of teaching curriculum;
- Honoraria for authors or editors;
- In instances where the scholarly bona fides of the chosen publishing venue are questionable as documented on the University Library webpage: <http://libguides.usask.ca/predatorypublishers>

Contact:

Research Services and Ethics Office: grant.review@usask.ca